ROYAL WELCOME FOR DR. NEWMAN

Howard University Formally Installs Its New President.

FEATURES OF THE OCCASION.

Brilliant Gathering of Noted Educators and Men of National Prominence Witness Ceremony—Charter, Seal and Keys of Institution Presented by Chief Justice Peelle.

By R. W. THOMPSON.
Washington.—With impressive ceremonies and in the presence of one of the most brilliant audiences that has ever assembled in Andrew Rankin Memorial chapel, Rev. Stephen Morrell Newman, A. M., D. D., was recently formally inaugurated as the ninth president of Howard university.

Eighty of the leading colleges and universities of the country were represented by duly accredited educators or alumni, and there were also present the board of trustees of Howard university, the faculty and student body, the board of education of the District of Columbia and many prominent citizens.

Chief Justice Stanton J. Peelle of the court of claims, who is president of the board of directors of the institution,

DR. STEPHEN M. NEWMAN.

presided. The inaugural procession, which formed at the Carnegie library, was led by the university choir under the guidance of Miss Lula Vere Childers and Professor Roy W. Tibbs. Mr.
Tibbs, a graduate of Oberlin college, composed the march used during the procession, and it had a stately swing that will commend it for similar occasions elsewhere.

After a fervent invocation by Rev.
Walter H. Brooks, pastor of the Nineteenth Street Baptist church, and the hymn, "God of Our Fathers," by the choir, Chief Justice Peelle presented to President Newman the charter, seal and keys of the university. The charter was borne by Professor William H.
Richards, LL. B., librarian of the school of law. The seal was borne by Professor George William Cook, LL.
M., secretary of the board of trustees and custodian of the seal. The keys were borne by Professor Edward L.
Parks, D. D., treasurer and registrar of the institution.

The principal speeches of the day were delivered by President Newman, president H. C. King of Oberlin college, President W. S. Scarborough of Wilberforce university, United States Senator Charles F. Johnson of Maine, and United States Commissioner of Education P. P. Claxton of Tennessee.

The platform of Andrew Rankin Memorial chapel has been graced by many figures, eminent in the domain of letters and statecraft, but none of them has ever delivered a message more redolent with ripe learning, of broader grasp of the mission of teaching, or more indicative of deep human sympathy than that which fell from the lips of Stephen Morrell Newman as he announced his acceptance of the sacred office of president of Howard university.

Dr. Newman said in part:
The imaginative faculty lies at the foundation of social, moral and physical development. It is the essence of human achievement. It is common to all peoples, but becomes a living force only when accompanied by a training that will apply it to the realities of life. Every race has the moral right to an opportunity for the training that will bring the imaginative faculty in touch with the problems that it must meet and solve.
Every man and woman is entitled to a chance to acquire the education best adapted to their special needs and should be accorded a free field in which to utilize it to the fullest in working out their mission in the scheme of civilization.

Back of all great achievements is this imaginative faculty. The wonderful Panama canal is the most striking example we have in this generation. It was the imaginative faculty of its promoters that discovered the vast possibilities that resulted in the joining of the Atlantic and the Pacific and shortening the journey by sea between the great trade centers of the world.

The Negro, in common with the other peoples of the earth, is endowed with this imaginative faculty. The race should have every opportunity for its development if the best results are to be attained. At the head of the instrumentalities for the moral, intellectual and material advancement of the colored Americans is our own Howard university. It is the great teacher, teaching leaders to teach others how to lead. It is the Negro's torch of the higher enlightenment—a concrete realization of the race's ideals in the forward movement of the twentieth century. To perpetuate its spirit of equality, fraternity and Christian brotherhood through practical culture I pledge my best endeavors.

GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.

Success of the Order in Mississippi Noted at Annual Meeting.

Mound Bayou, Miss.—The recent annual communication of the M. W.
Stringer grand lodge of Mississippi held in this town was attended by 700 delegates. It is the largest and reputed to be the wealthiest grand lodge of Masons among colored men in the United States. The lodge became famous under the leadership of the late Bishop Edward W. Lampton, who served as grand master. The enrollment is 10,000 members, distributed among 428 subordinate lodges.

The features of the communication were the report of the financial wizard, Charles Banks, whose duties as secretary-treasurer of the Masonic Benefit association involve the collection and disbursement each year of $100,000 and more; the report of M. W. Grand Master W. A. J. Morgan and of the grand treasurer, Daniel W. Gary, and the heartiest indorsement of the work of those craftsmen by the grand lodge.

Mr. Banks has risen through constant effort to the leadership of Mississippi Masons and is the recognized leader of the progressive wing of his people in the state. The Masonic benefit office, located in this famous Negro town, collected in 1911 $100,000 and paid out to beneficiaries of deceased craftsmen $90,000. The office gives employment to a dozen persons.

Among the prominent Mississippians who attended the grand lodge communication were Perry W. Howard, the lawyer; Dr. E. P. Jones, E. D. Coleman of Aberdeen, N. H. McKissack of Holly Springs, Dr. D. W. Sherrod, Virgil Reubens, Emory P. Simmons, Dr.
E. B. Topp, H. D. Ford, Professor J.
O. Ross, Dr. W. A. Attaway, W. W.
Cox, Dr. W. F. Howard, John L. Webb of Yazoo, Calvin N. Miller, Thomas G.
Ewing, Jr., and many another of those associated with them.

The following officers were elected by acclamation following Mr. Banks' report: M. W. grand master, W. A. J.
Morgan; deputy grand master, W. W.
Phillips of Kosciusko; grand secretary, George S. Goodman of Holly Springs; grand treasurer, D. W. Gary of Mound Bayou; G. S. W. B. F. Lacy of Shiloh; G. J. W. J. J. Morant, Jr., of Vicksburg; secretary-treasurer Masonic Benefit association, Charles Banks.

The special address was delivered by Colonel Roscoe Conkling Simmons, the journalist, who spoke before a packed house at an open session. The next communication will be held in Canton in the month of December, 1913.

WILSON HEADS COLLINS CHAPEL HOSPITAL STAFF.

Memphis Institution's Future Assured Under Direction of Eminent Surgeon.

Nashville, Tenn.—Considerable interest is manifested in the announcement that Dr. J. T. Wilson, the celebrated colored surgeon of this city, has become surgeon in chief of Collins Chapel Old Folks' Home and Hospital, located at 418 Ashland court, Memphis, Tenn. Dr. Wilson is, without doubt, one of the most successful and best known men in his profession in the south and has successfully operated upon many intricate and difficult cases which have given him wide influence and prestige. For a number of years he has held the chair of clinical surgery at the Meharry Medical college, and is regarded as one of the institution's foremost lecturers. He himself is a graduate of the Meharry Medical college, and for several years was the proprietor of Wilson's Infirmary, erected at a cost of about $20,000, which was recently destroyed by fire.

Dr. Wilson will soon complete the rebuilding of the new infirmary, handsome and more completely equipped than ever.

For twelve or fifteen years Dr. Wilson has been practicing his profession among the white and colored people of this section. He has made many friends. The authorities of Collins Chapel Old Folks' Home and Hospital, have done well to secure the services of this celebrated surgeon to direct their work, and his connection therewith will give added confidence to and widen the influence of this young institution.

The tremendous affair undertaken by a single congregation of Memphis in the beginning, which later enlisted the support of the West Tennessee, Arkansas, Little Rock and the Mississippi conferences of the Colored Methodist Episcopal church bids fair to be a greater success than its promoters have even dreamed of. If a hospital can succeed, Dr. J. T. Wilson is the man who will make it succeed. In the meantime he does not relinquish his connection with Meharry Medical college.

GROWTH OF UNITY AMONG LEADERS

Evidences of Progress Noted by Dr. A. C. Powell

VALUE OF SELF HELP SHOWN.

McDonough Memorial Hospital Association Holds Public Meeting at the Abyssinian Baptist Church—Dr.
Booker T. Washington Makes Principal Address.

By N. BARNETT DODSON.

New York.—The public meeting recently held at the Abyssinian Baptist church in this city under the auspices of the McDonough Memorial Hospital association was a notable affair. It served as a fitting climax to the many worthy efforts of the colored people of this section during the year to do real constructive work for the larger development and advancement of racial institutions.

The edifice was crowded from street to platform with an audience thoroughly alive to the purpose of the occasion as well as eager to see and hear the speaker of the evening, Dr. Booker T. Washington, who delivered one of his most instructive and eloquent addresses. Dr. Washington's speechmaking tour in Greater New York during the first two weeks of December was one of earnest pleading for fair opportunity for the race in the various lines of business industry as well as in social and benevolent work.

The Rev. Dr. A. Clayton Powell, pastor of the Abyssinian church, in introducing Dr. Washington, said:

I wish publicly to express my thanks to the association for the honor you have conferred upon me. Many honors have come to me during the twenty years of my humble ministry, but allow me to assure you and your distinguished guests that none have been more heartily appreciated than the honor of presiding and presenting the speaker on this occasion.

If the Negroes of the northland are behind the Negroes of the southland in racial development, as is so often stated,

REV. A. CLAYTON POWELL, D. D.

It is because the leaders of the race in the north were so afraid of drawing the color line that they put a wet blanket over everything that looked distinctly racial. For that reason we have been more dependent upon the white man in the north for the necessities of life than have been our brothers in the south. But we are beginning to learn that a dependent people are a poor and weak people.

So the sensible colored men and women of the north have come to know largely through the teachings of our noted guest that the establishment and conduct of colored Y. M. C. A.'s, industrial schools, colleges, hospitals and business enterprises instead of making us unmanly are making us manly; that they not only open avenues of employment for our own, but that they are institutions in which we are being taught the important lessons of self control and self direction.

Another evidence of race progress is the increasing feeling of harmony among the workers and thinkers of the 10,000,000 Negroes. Whether we are advocates of the so called higher or industrial education, whether we call ourselves radicals or conservatives, whether we belong to this or that group of thinkers, we have learned the lesson that we are all looking toward and working toward one glorious end, namely, the development and uplift of this great race of ours.

It was my privilege recently to attend a banquet which marked an epoch in the history of the American Negro. At that banquet 200 colored Republicans, Democrats, Progressives, Socialists, Prohibitionists and members of all leading religious denominations united in complimenting and applauding the national leadership of a Negro Democrat.

No people climb to a place of prominence and power unless they are willing to follow community, county and state leaders, and these leaders in turn must be willing to follow national leadership.

Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes, secretary of Yale university, said to me some time ago that there were just seven great men in the world and that Dr. Washington was one of them. I was so proud of the fact that a colored man was one of the seven I forgot to ask him to name the other six. I have the honor, therefore, of presenting to this audience not only the leading Negro, but one of the most useful and distinguished citizens of the United States and one of the seven great men of the world, Dr. Booker T. Washington.

OUR SQUIRREL-LIKE AN- CESTORS.

There is now ample evidence for drawing up a pedigree for man as far back as a million years or so. The steady development of the brain must give a fundamental reason for man's ascent from the ape, the ancestor of which was a small, land grubbing, insectivorous animal, whose sense of smell was more serviceable than all its other senses and which took to life in the trees, becoming a squirrel-like creature. This step marked the birth of the primates—i. e., highest order of mammals, including man, apes and monkeys—and the definite branching off from other mammals of the line of man's ancestry. The squirrel-like creature gradually developed into an ape, with more highly developed senses and greater muscular action and skilled movements. A mechanism was evolved which regulated its muscular actions and brought its sum total of consciousness to bear on the performance of a given act. Thus were developed the germs of all psychical greatness, which in the million years or so that followed culminated in the human mind.— Professor Elliot Smith.

IMMORTALITY.

It must be so. Plato, thou reason-est well!
Else whence this pleasing hope,
this fond desire,
This longing after immortality, Or whence this secret dread and inward horror
Of falling into naught? Why shrinks the soul?
Back on herself and startles at destruction?
'Tis the divinity itself that points out an hereafter
And intimates eternity to man.
—Addison.

GOETHE'S REFLECTIONS.

It is not always needful for truth to take a definite shape. It is enough if it hovers about like a spirit and produces harmony; if it is wafted through the air like the sound of a bell, grave and kindly.

Translators are like busy match-makers—they sing the praises of some half veiled beauty and extol her charms and arouse an irresistible longing for the original.

There is nothing more odious than the majority. It consists of a few powerful men to lead the way; of accommodating rascals and submissive weaklings, and of a mass of men who trot after them without the least knowing of their own mind.

Fiftieth Anniversary of Freedom.

Public meetings in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of the issue of the proclamation of emancipa-tion are scheduled to be held in many of the large cities on Wednesday, Jan.
1, 1913. These celebrations will be followed by extensive preparations for holding big expositions in many of the states later in the year, at which the progress of the race during the fifty years of freedom will be shown.

Work of Twentieth Century Club.

The Twentieth Century club of Portland, Ore., held its last social session for 1912 recently at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Anderson on Er-erett street. The meeting was well attended and highly interesting. The club is doing splendid work in keeping alive the social and literary spirit among its members in the community.

Afro-American Thrift in Allensworth.

The most notable feature of advance in modern village improvement among Afro-Americans of their exclusive effort is in the town of Allensworth, Cal., where the townpeople have recently organized, equipped and installed a fire department. The personnel of the department is made up of both male and female.

Atlanta Behind in Y. M. C. A. Work.

The leaders in the work of the Atlanta (Ga.) branch of the Young Men's Christian association are making an energetic effort to collect the remainder of $46,741 of the $52,000 subscribed for the new building nearly two years ago. All subscribers are urged to pay up as soon as possible in order to have the work completed early in 1913.

FREEMAN DENTAL SOCIETY.

Celebrates Twelfth Anniversary and Elects Officers at Banquet.

Washington.—Twenty-seven colored dentists sat around the banquet board recently at Williams' cafe and applauded the toastmaster, Dr. W. S.
Lottin, when he arose to announce that the speechmaking was about to begin. For fully two hours the banqueters listened to toasts sparkling with wit and humor. The occasion was the annual banquet and election of officers of the Robert T. Freeman Dental Society of the District of Columbia. This is the oldest colored dental society in the United States and was incidentally celebrating its twelfth anniversary.

Prior to the banquet the election of officers took place. All of the officers who served during the past year were re-elected. The roster of officers is as follows: President, Dr. E. C. Fry; vice president, Dr. A. S. Gaskins; secretary, Dr. George H. Butcher; treasurer, Dr. A. J. Gwathney; librarian, Dr. W. E. Hamilton; historian, Dr.
John E. Washington.

Dr. Fry in his annual address made some very interesting observations.
He pointed out the progress the society has made during the past year.
Twenty-three local dentists are members and fifteen honorary members live in the adjacent states of Maryland and Virginia. During the past year seven meetings were held, at each of which a paper dealing with some side of the profession was read by one of the members and discussed by the society.

Official recognition has been accorded the society by the board of dental examiners of the District. On one occasion during the past year a committee from the society appeared by invitation before a congressional committee and gave recommendations concerning proposed dental legislation affecting the District of Columbia. Dr.
Fry's report was a complete and exhaustive review of the past year's work. When he finished his remarks he was warmly congratulated.

Dr. Roscoe C. Brown of Richmond, Va., editor of the dental section of the National Medical Journal, was present. In an address he urged the members to help him make the dental section interesting and instructive. Dr.
Ferguson, also of Richmond, president of the Tri-State Dental league, was also present and urged the society to have representation at the next session of the league at Buckroe Beach in June. Other out of town dentists present were Dr. Jackson of Providence, R. I.; Dr. Ramsey of Richmond, Dr. Anderson and Dr. Jones of Baltimore and Dr. Johnson of Petersburg, Va.

The following dentists sat around the banquet table: Dr. Anderson of Baltimore, Dr. Butcher, Dr. Barrier, Dr. Brown of Richmond; Dr. Cherry, Dr. Edwards, Dr. Fry, Dr. Fray, Dr.
Francis, Dr. Fraser, Dr. Freeman, Dr.
Ferguson of Richmond; Dr. Gwathney, Dr. Gaskins, Dr. Gray, Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Johnson of Petersburg; Dr. Jackson of Providence, Dr. Jones of Baltimore, Dr. Loftin, Dr. Nailor, Dr. Ramsey of Richmond; Dr. Tancil, Dr. Sumner Wormley, Dr. Roscoe Wormley, Dr. Walker, Dr. Wilson and Dr. Washington.

SUCCESS OF DR. CREDIT.

Work of Brilliant Educator and Minister Having a Salutary Effect.

The religious and educational work of the Rev. William A. Credit, LL. D., of Philadelphia is having a salutary effect upon the public generally as well as upon those in his immediate sphere. Dr. Credit is the successful pastor of the Cherry Memorial Baptist church in Philadelphia and president of the Downingtown Industrial and Agricultural school at Downingtown, Pa. He was for four years president of the New England Baptist missionary convention, the largest organization among the Baptist denomination in the northern and New England states.

Dr. Credit is an alumnus of Lincoln university, brilliant scholar, orator and successful pastor. The new $100,- 000 Cherry Memorial church edifice was built under his pastoral direction.
The Downingtown school under his lead is destined to become the largest of its kind in the north among Afro-Americans. The enrollment of students at the school for 1912-13 is the largest since its beginning.

Emancipation Celebration Program.

The suggested program for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the issuance of the emancipation proclamation, to be held in Philadelphia, Jan. 11, 1913, prepared by R. R. Wright, Ph. D., editor of the Christian Recorder, Philadelphia, includes patriotic songs, readings, sermon or address and papers on various subjects in keeping with the occasion. Among the leading papers to be read will be one on "Fifty Years of Negro Progress" and one entitled "The Next Fifty Years—What?" Dunbar's "Ode to Ethiopia" and the emancipation proclamation will be read, also selection from Whittier's "Voices of Freedom." Persons desiring a copy of Dr. Wright's paper on "Fifty Years of Negro Progress" should send a two cent stamp for mailing the same to their address. The pamphlet is in great demand and is sent free to all applicants.

FIRST AID TO INJURED.

Practical Work of Dr. A. M. Curtis
For the Colored Youth.

Dr. A. M. Curtis, one of the race's foremost surgeons and former surgeon in chief of Freedmen's hospital, in Washington, is winning new laurels as an instructor on timely medical topics through his course of lectures on "First Aid to the Injured," given twice a week at the Y. M. C. A. during the winter season of 1912-13.

The commodious gymnasium and its fine athletic appointments are utilized by Dr. Curtis for practical demonstrations in the art of administering first aid to the victims of accidents or sudden illness, and a large number of bright young men have registered in the classes for the systematic instruction that is being offered. Each lecture is attended by prominent medical experts and officers from the Central Y.
M. C. A., who evince a deep interest in the important work that Dr. Curtis is doing.

At the conclusion of the first term an examination will be held to test the knowledge of the matriculants, and a diploma is to be issued in due form to those who graduate. Experience in administering first aid to the injured is the great need of modern life. It is of especial value to those who take part in athletics, to persons who travel by land or sea and to the ordinary citizen who goes in and out among us on the city streets. In forming these classes Dr. Curtis is doing much to extend the Y. M. C. A.'s scope of usefulness to the colored youth of the nation's capital.

DR. M. F. SYDES A BENEDICT.

Popular Baltimore Pastor Marries Miss Blanche Hill in Zanesville.

Zanesville, O.—Miss Blanche E. Hill and the Rev. Dr. Marion F. Sydes, pastor of Waters African Methodist Episcopal church, Baltimore, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Washington Hill, 442 W. Main street, Zanesville, O., Wednesday, Dec. 25. Owing to a recent death in the bride's family, the wedding was a quiet one. Bishop Joshua H. Jones officiated.

Dr. and Mrs. Sydes were tendered a reception by the Rev. Dr. and Mrs.
Daniel P. Senton, at 1013 T street, Washington, on the evening of Dec.
26. The following evening the newly

REV. DR. MARION F. SYDES.

wedded couple were the guests of honor at a reception at Waters church, Baltimore. The reception was largely attended, many of the prominent residents being in the throng. Among the many presents was a handsome token from the Baltimore A. M. E. ministers' meeting.

The bride is a native of Zanesville and became acquainted with Dr. Sydes during his pastorate in Ohio. She was educated in the public schools of Zane-sville and Wilberforce university. For the past five years she has been a teacher in the Baltimore public schools.

The groom was also educated at Wilberforce and has pastored in various sections of the country. Dr. Sydes has been a widower for some time. His only daughter, Miss Ruth M. Sydes, is ### President Thompson Wants Results.

In order to secure an accurate list of papers published by members of the race as speedily as possible, President R. W. Thompson of the National Negro Press association has suggested that each member of the executive committee secure a list of such papers published in the state which he represents and forward the same to the president at 908 S street, northwest, Washington.
This is a wise suggestion and shows that the president is alive to the interest of the organization. The chairman of the executive committee and the corresponding secretary of the association are in need of such information, as they are constantly receiving requests for information concerning papers published by colored Americans.

CALLS BLEASE ANARCHIST.

Georgian Declares the South Does Not Stand for Lynch Law.

WASHINGTON, Special.—Owing Governor Blease, of South Carolina, an anarchist, Thomas Brown Felder, Jr., of Georgia, delivered what he termed "the south's answer to Blease" here last Saturday, before the annual meeting of the American Society of Jurisprudence. The Georgian declared that the south did not stand for lynch law, and the people of the country ought to know it.

"For an officer of the law, occupying the chief chair of a great state, to counsel lawlessness in a high forum of debate at a time when the eyes of the nation are fixed upon him, constitutes an offense against the majesty of the law, the gravity of which is without parallel or precedent." Mr.
Felder said. "If the chief executive of a state, when the need arises, fails to call out the militia, he becomes an anarchist."

Representative Henry D. Clayton of Alabama, was elected president of the society.

Rev. R. D. Leonard Called To Connersville.

Rev. R. D. Leonard, who served so successfully as assistant pastor of Mt.
Zion Baptist Church, has received a call to take of Mt. Zion Baptist church of Connersville, Ind., at a very flattering salary. Rev. Leonard has also received a call from the First Baptist church at Columbus, Ind. It will be remembered that Rev. Leonard came to Dayton last spring at the invitation of Rev. Harper to assist in the pastorate of Zion Baptist Church.

REV. R. D. LEONARD

Rev. Leonard understood that the position would be permanent, hence he moved his family to the city. Rev.
Harper's plans failed to materialize and thus Rev. Leonard was discharged amidst much confusion that even threatened to split the church. Rev.
Leonard had the sympathy of the entire community. That he has received such a splendid charge is but a reward for faithfulness and unselfish work in the Master's service.

Rev. Leonard has not accepted the call, but will leave for Connersville, this week and remain over Sunday.

"THE TEMPLE OF PROGRESS"

Illumines the Semi-Centennial of the Emancipation of the Negro.

No announcement made in recent years has awakened so much interest among colored people as the presentation of the allegory "The Temple of Progress" to be given by Mrs. Lillian Thomas Fox, at Bethel A. M. E. church, Monday evening, December, 30. The affair will be given under the auspices of the Woman's Civic Club of this city. Thirty-five persons will take part in the presentation aside from other persons who will have special numbers.

The musical numbers of the entertainment will be attractive. The whole will be historical and educational, interesting to young and old. The presentation at this time of the achievement of the Negro in America for the last fifty years, is strikingly pertinent because of the semi-centennial of the Emancipation of the Negro which occurs Jan. 1, 1913. It will be shown that despite the poverty and ignorance which were the chief legacy of slavery. The race has made wonderful progress along all lines of activity. The sale of tickets indicates a large attendance.

THE FOUR SEASONS.

Spring.
Amid the branches of the silvery bowers
The nightingale doth sing. Perchance he knows That spring hath come and takes the later snows
For the white petals of the plums' sweet flowers.

Summer.
O lotus leaf, I dreamt that the wide earth Held naught more pure than thee, held naught more true!
Why, then, when on thee rolls a drop of dew Pretend that 'tis a gem of price-less worth?

Autumn.
A thousand thoughts of tender, vague regret Crowd on my soul what time I stand and gaze On the soft shining autumn moon and yet Not to me only speaks her silvery haze.

Winter.
When falls the snow, lo, every herb and tree
That in seclusion through the wintry hours Long time had been held fast breaks forth in flowers That ne'er in spring were known upon the lea.

An appeal to the appellate court has been taken by Samuel Collins on the decision given some time ago by Judge Taylor that the Emory Cain Industrial school in this city was not equal to the public schools, and therefore that boys attending it were subjected to truancy charges. Collins was fined for contributing to delinquency by refusing to send his son to the public schools and placing him in the industrial institution. The appeal of the case was taken on the grounds that the Cain school does qualify under the state laws.

Frank P. Baker, prosecutor, who was elected for another term of office in November announced his deputies for the next two years, appointing the following colored lawyers J. K. Brown, James Bryant and J. T. V. Hill. They will handle colored divorce cases.

LEADERSHIP.

Life is not a game of chess, which is won by the man who can make the best calculations. Now and then a man like Alexander or Napoleon possesses such transcendent intellectual powers that he can treat life as if it were a game and can dispose of nations and armies as though they were mere castles or pawns on his chessboard. But neither a Napoleon nor an Alexander was able to leave an enduring empire. The men whose work has lasted best are those like Lincoln and Washington, like Cromwell and William the Silent—men differing greatly in intellectual gifts, yet marked out above all others by the habit of self command. Go back through the list of Christian heroes and martyrs, back to Paul, back to Jesus himself, and we find that the thing that counted most in their character and work was that they had risen above the distractions of success and failure into a command of their own souls and that this gave them command over the deeds and the souls of others.—President Hadley of Yale University.

SOLITUDE.

O ye kindly nymphs, who dwell 'mongst the rocks and the thickets, Grant unto each whatsoever he may in silence desire! Comfort impart to the mourner and give to the doubter instruction And let the lover rejoice, finding the bliss that he craves, For from the gods ye received what they ever denied unto mortals— Power to comfort and aid all who in you may confide. —Goethe.

A CREDIT TO THE RACE.

Financial Headquarters of the Methodist Church at Birmingham, Ala.—The formal opening of the new financial headquarters of the A. M. E. Zion church took place in this city recently at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion church, of which the Rev. J. F. Moreland is pastor. An immense crowd witnessed the impressive and inspiring ceremonies. Dr. J. S. Jackson, the energetic financial secretary, to whose constructive genius and commercial courage the church is due this forward movement in its business management, was in general charge. The North Alabama conference, of which he is a member, was in session at Bessemer, eleven miles away, with Bishop J. W. Alstork presiding. At the invitation of Dr. Jackson the conference adjourned on Sunday and came to Birmingham in a body to participate in the exercises and to give additional significance to the history making occasion.

Bishop Alstork acted as master of ceremonies. Hon. John C. Dancy, secretary of the church extension board, representing the general officers of the connection, delivered an eloquent address, reciting the struggles of the church toward financial independence and paying a high tribute to the demonstrated skill of Dr. Jackson as a financier. Dr. J. W. Wood, Professor T. W. Wallace, editor of the Western Star of Zion, and Dr. Moreland also spoke in praise of the work. Representatives of the Alabama conference, Florida, Mississippi, Tennessee and North Carolina conferences came on to show their confidence in and appreciation of Dr. Jackson, who, they assert, has brought so much prestige to Zion's great army everywhere and especially in Alabama and the southwest. They declare he must be elevated to the Episcopal bench in 1916. The headquarters here will compare favorably with any of the business institutions carried on by the whites, and it is a credit to the city and race.

Dr. Jackson is looking extremely well despite the hard work he is doing. He now tips the scales at 183 pounds, a jump in four years from 140. His beautiful home is approaching completion. It is one of the handsomest and best appointed residences in the city, and with electric fixtures, outbuildings, fences, etc., will cost not less than $60,000.

WELL QUALIFIED PASTOR.

Career of Rev. J. W. MacDonald as Minister and Educator.

One of the best known ministers in the A. M. E. Zion church is the Rev. J. W. MacDonald, pastor of the Pennsylvania Avenue A. M. E. Zion church in Baltimore. He is a native of Plymouth, N. C., where he was born about forty-seven years ago. Rev. Mr. MacDonald has had several years' experience in the ministry.

He was educated at Livingstone college, Salisbury, N. C., and has received both the degrees of master of arts and doctor of divinity from his alma mater. Dr. MacDonald began life as a school teacher and only gave up the active work of that profession when he was called to his present pastorate in the spring of 1911. His first job as a school teacher was at the normal school of his home city. He rose step by step there until he became principal. He has also taught in high schools and academies. Eleven years ago he entered the ministry and has served churches in North Carolina, Virginia, Paterson, N. J., and Somerville, N. J.

During his brief stay in Baltimore he has succeeded in winning his way into the hearts of the populace and the congregation, and collections at his church have been doubled. He is a frequent contributor to the Star of Zion, the official organ of the A. M. E. Zion church, and is frequently mentioned as suitable timber for the editorship of that paper.

His friends say that his fine grasp of questions of state and church, combined with a thorough grasp of history, English and topics of the day, admirably fit him for the editorial chair.

He is a strong temperance advocate and has rendered valiant service for the cause. As a speaker he is constantly in demand to deliver special sermons and addresses before social, fraternal and political gatherings. He has acted as private secretary to Bishop Alexander Walters at a number of annual conferences.

Influence of the Tuskegee Institute. The number of students enrolled at the Tuskegee (Ala.) institute for the school year of 1912-13 has reached the high water mark of 1,650. Forty separate trades and industries are taught, and the influence which the school exerts upon the community is of the most helpful kind.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson XIII.—Fourth Quarter, For Dec. 29, 1912.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, a Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, John vii, 17—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

LESSON I.—Jesus walking on the sea, Mark vi, 45-56. Golden Text, Matt. xiv, 27, "Straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid." He often sends or leads His own into trouble that He may reveal Himself more fully to them. He is always in prayer for us and always sees our toll and is never unmindful of us. If we had ears to hear we might often hear Him say the words of the Golden Text.

LESSON II.—Clean and unclean, Mark vii, 1-13. Golden Text, Rom. xiv, 17, "For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost." It is not the outward that counts before God if the heart is not right. There must be that which men can see, but it must proceed from a new heart and a clean heart, a new birth from God by the Spirit and the word. Christ our righteousness in the heart.

LESSON III.—Mission to the gentiles, Mark vii, 24-30; Matt. viii, 5-13. Golden Text, John vi, 37, "Him that cometh to Me I will in nowise cast out." The stories of the Roman centurion and the Syrophenician woman take us outside of Israel and carry us back to the queen of Sheba and all kings who came to Solomon because of the Lord to hear His wisdom and to bring Him gifts, for the Lord was heard and worshipped through Solomon.

LESSON IV.—Wanderings in Decapolis, Mark vii, 31 to viii, 10. Golden Text, Mark vii, 37, "He hath done all things well. He maketh both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak." Whenever mouth and ears are yielded to Him He can give power to speak and hear. He said to a prophet at one time, "When I speak with thee I will open thy mouth" (Ezek. iii, 27). As to the hungry, them He filleth with good things (Luke i, 53; vi, 21).

LESSON V.—The sign and the leaven, Mark vii, 11-26. Golden Text, John viii, 12 (R. V.), "Jesus spake unto them, saying, I am the light of the world." * * * Bread for the body seemed more real to them than food for the soul. They were unbelieving and therefore more or less blind. Their eyes and ears did not profit them as they should. False doctrine abounded then, as now, and we must take heed what we hear and how.

LESSON VI.—World's temperance Sunday, Hos. vii, Golden Text, Isa. vi, 11 (R. V.), "Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning that they may follow strong drink, that tarry late into the night till wine inflame them." * * * Hosea was contemporary with Isaiah (Hos. i, 1; Isa. i, 1), and both were faithful messengers of the Lord against the sin of drunkenness. But we must not forget the drunkenness without wine (Isa. xlii, 9).

LESSON VII.—The great question, Mark vii, 27 to ix, 1. Golden Text, Matt. xvi, 16, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Simon Peter, speaking at one time from God and at another from the devil (verse 33 and Matt. xvi, 17), should make us consider who it is that is using us. While eternal life is the free gift of God, the cost of discipleship is the whole hearted renunciation of self.

LESSON VIII.—The transfiguration, Mark ix, 1-13. Golden Text, Luke ix, 35 (R. V.), "A voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is My Son, My chosen; hear ye Him." * * * This scene set forth the kingdom in miniature. The Son of Man glorified; the risen and translated saints represented by Moses and Elijah; a righteous Israel represented by Peter, James and John, and at the foot of the mount the devil about to be cast out.

LESSON IX.—The lunatic boy, Mark ix, 14-29. Golden Text, Mark ix, 23 (R. V.), "And Jesus said unto him: If thou canst! All things are possible to him that believeth." The whole church is as powerless to bind the devil and cast him out of the earth as were these disciples to deal with that demon possessed boy. But when Jesus shall come in His glory He will cast him into the pit for 1,000 years.

LESSON X.—The child in the midst, Matt. xviii, 1-14. Golden Text, Matt. xviii, 10, "In heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven." To enter the kingdom which is yet to be set up and fill the whole earth one must come as empty and helpless as a babe and trusting fully Him who calls us. Then we can never perish and may ever have the guardianship of the angels who behold the face of God.

LESSON XI.—Forgiveness, Matt. xviii, 15-35. Golden Text, Eph. iv, 32 (R. V.), "Be ye kind one to another, tender hearted, forgiving each other, even as God also in Christ forgave you." Having become children of God and having in Him eternal redemption, the forgiveness of sins by His precious blood, it is our privilege to enjoy continually the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

LESSON XII.—Christmas lesson, Isa. ix, 1-7. Golden Text, Isa. ix, 6, "Unto us a child is born; unto us a son is given." Encourage all to believe all that is said of Him, and that as truly as He was born of a virgin in Bethlehem so truly shall He sit on David's throne and rule Israel and all nations and establish on earth a kingdom of peace and righteousness.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS.

BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

THE MAELSTROM OF WEALTH.

Text, "He went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions."—Matt. xix, 22.

Here's a fish worth while! One would think the great Fisherman would do anything to get this catch for his gospel net. There's an irresistible charm about this young ruler. He's handsome, clever, moral, amiable, snugly rich—and willing. Living right up to the law, too, yet not quite satisfied. "Master, what good thing shall I do to inherit eternal life?" "What act of sacrifice, penance, heroism, to gain immortality?" "Keep the commandments," advises Jesus. "The commandments! Which, Master?" Why, he has kept the 613 precepts of the rabbinical law. The ten are commonplace. The great Physician looks at him, sees the silken cords of luxury and ease which hold him captive, puts his finger on the sore spot and says, "Here, thou allest!" Like an X ray, the searching eye of Christ saw that his gold was poisoning his soul. "Sell that thou hast; give to the poor; follow me." "Oh, surely not, Lord! All?" He turns away sorrowful. The curtain drops on him with his face to the world, his back toward heaven. It is Adam leaving the gates of Eden, Esau selling his birthright, Saul throwing away his kingdom, Judas going out from the last supper. He might have been the most brilliant of the disciples. He would have antedated Paul the apostle. Dante making his journey through hell said of this rich young ruler, "Among the exiles of eternity I saw that youth who made the great refusal."

The Danger of the Whirlpool. Let us not be too quick to condemn this first century seeker. How would we like to give all or half, even the Lord's tenth? Do we have our money or does our money have us? What shall it profit a man if he gain earthly treasure and lose treasure eternal? Christ's eye yearningly follows him down the street until he turns the corner. "A rich man shall have difficulty entering the kingdom of heaven," he sighs. That's revolutionary surely. Isn't prosperity a sign of divine favor? Don't we, does not even the church, pray that way? Do we not look at the little, soul winning mission church with supercilious eyes? Banker Goldsmith, Senator Starnes, Mrs. Shallowater, the society leader, are attendants at our church. We are very exclusive. Jesus considers confidence in that kind of prosperity a danger. Not riches, mind you, but trust in riches. Temporal prosperity and spiritual poverty seem to go off together. "The prayers of this congregation are asked for a brother who is growing wealthy." It was a petitioner's startling request. "It is easier for camel to go through needle's eye than for rich man to enter kingdom of God," quotes the Master. Exaggerated proverb! Each auditor smiled, but each one knew just what the great Teacher meant.

"One Thing Thou Lackest." "What lack I yet?" asked the young man. I know what he lacked. I put on my best suit, bought my ticket and went to orchestra concert. I listened to pail o' trumpet, clash of cymbal, sharpness of clarinet, wall of fiddle, crash of a hundred brass instruments. It was a tumult, a mob of tones, a riot of sounds. One sitting next me said it was exquisite. What lacked I? An ear for music! The same one walked with me through autumn wood, amid rustle of leaf and call of bird, the sun set in purple and crimson and ivory and gold. He saw them not, only remarked, "I wish I had a larger bag for these chestnuts." What lacked he? An eye for the beautiful! The watch may be full jeweled, perfect pinions, handsome case, but it doesn't go. It lacks a mainspring! At League Island navy yard I rambled over the flagship Tennessee, pride of the fleet anchored there. It was about to race the Montana across to Mediterranean sea. Military masts, searchlights, guns, ammunition, provisions, officers, crew, all complete. No, one thing more for this fighting monster, this floating fort, before it could cross the seas—a tiny little quivering needle—the compass. The school child at the blackboard writes down a row of ciphers, multiplies them by any number; they are still ciphers. The placing of one, the smallest digit, makes the value thousands or millions. One thing the young ruler lacked to attain eternal life—to be free from love of money.

Hollow Idol—Hidden Jewels. The opening act was drama. The story ends in tragedy. Each time I read it I hope it will end differently, but it doesn't. He turns away from Jesus. The probability is he never came back. If he did it is not recorded. The story ends with a question mark. That is a tragedy in itself—a question mark at the end of one's life. Money, power and pleasure—what are they, one or
